

ANOTHER PRIVATE CAR MAKES ITS APPEARANCE

Colorado Mining Man and Railroad Official Fresh From Interview With President Diaz.

John F. Campion, wealthy mining man of Colorado and also interested in Mexican mines, and George S. Hartley, superintendent and general manager of the Colorado Midland railroad, are here in their private cars, having come from Mexico City, where they discussed the present troubles in Mexico with President Diaz and other officials.

Neither would discuss the object of their visit to Mexico or the situation there. They are going to Colorado. They could not get their car into Mexico via El Paso and were forced to go to Laredo, Texas, to get through. They were not molested by the border guards. It is said they expected the opinion that something was due to happen in Mexico soon to restore peaceful conditions and give the republic a stable government.

MRS. BABBITT DIES SUDDENLY TODAY

Well Known Woman, Wife of Former Policeman, Is Stricken After Illness Lasting Many Months.

Mrs. Ella Babbitt, of 117 1/2 North First street, wife of H. M. Babbitt, died this afternoon about 2 o'clock. Mrs. Babbitt had been an invalid for several years, and recently underwent an operation for peritonitis at St. Joseph's sanitarium in the hope that her health might be restored. The operation was not successful, however, and Mrs. Babbitt passed away today.

The deceased is survived by a husband, H. M. Babbitt, who was formerly a member of the Albuquerque police force but is now private watchman at the Alvarado, and by several children. The arrangements for the funeral will be announced later.

BUSINESS MEN, BEWARE

Some business men have answered a recent advertisement of a stenographer thinking they were communicating with an Albuquerque Business College graduate.

We wish to state, emphatically, that none of our graduates have, at any time, found it necessary to advertise for a position. The college maintains an employment bureau for the purpose of furnishing business houses with competent office help, and this bureau has always been found adequate for the needs of our students. The fact that we usually have several desirable positions that we cannot fill precludes the possibility of an Albuquerque Business College graduate having to advertise for employment.

Business men, take warning, and when in need of office help apply directly to the school and we shall take pleasure in supplying your needs if we have someone available whom we can recommend.

Officers Unable to Secure Single Clew but Believers Men Cannot Remain at Liberty.

The eight prisoners who have fled since the beginning of the rebellion last Tuesday night are still evading the police and the law enforcement authorities are not too successful in this effort. The sheriff, Mr. Thompson, is keeping up a vigorous search for the missing men but he believes that have been followed by his agents without misleading information. The fugitives have been scattered to different points, some of the officers are not able to find them.

They Albuquerque need not lag behind New York or even Paris in the strength and vogue of her millinery was elegantly personating yesterday at the annual spring meeting of the Welwyn's millinery establishment. The large crowd of Albuquerque women who were present displayed the latest in fashion, and many made their appearance in the designer's shops of Paris and London. Owing to the enormous success of the Welwyn shop, other women are enabled to appear in the very height of fashion. Mrs. Hartley of New York who is in charge of the Welwyn shop this season has shown off admirably good taste and artistic conception in her selection of this season's stock.

Planners will be used extensively this season in production of colors, and some hats will be bigger than ever before. Truly, these are "dream" hats that frame the wearer's face in a great wreath of color, the edges blurring gracefully with a decided droop over the shoulders. Several models were shown in the new coral shade which is the very latest.

Altogether the display at Welwyn's is one of the sensations of the season in the novelty and smartness of the styles exhibited.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Opening of Spring Term of Albuquerque Business College

The Albuquerque Business College wishes to announce that new classes will be organized this week in all courses, and this will be a fine time for those desiring to secure a business or stenographic course to enter. Owing to examinations that will occupy part of the week, the spring term will begin on April 5, instead of March 27.

All classes, however, will be formed during the coming week.

The school remains in session the entire year, so those entering now can continue their course without interruption. During June, July and August the school hours are from 8 to 12 a.m., with no classes in the afternoons, though the school will be open for those who desire to study.

A new catalogue giving full information will be sent to those who request it.

IMPORTANT MEET OF COMMERCIAL CLUB

SWATTING THE FLY AND CANNING THE TOMATO ARE TWO OF THE IMPORTANT QUESTIONS FOR CONSIDERATION.

The question of the Commercial club scheduled for Tuesday night is to have two important questions up for consideration, one being the fly question and the health of the city generally and the other is the proposed to make canning money. There are several other minor matters and any member can bring up any question he thinks needs attention.

Dr. Robert Smith, chairman of the health committee, will make a report which is expected to be of more than usual interest. The club will hold its annual meeting at the home of W. J. Stevens, Mrs. J. O. Miller of Agricultural college, and Miss Mamie Morrison, head of the music department at the college, being in charge of the program.

Through the Satzels' Barber company, R. P. Purdy has sold to Dr. G. Pratt of Colorado, eight acres of land situated about half way between Las Cruces and Mesilla Park at a price of $175 per acre. Dr. Purdy expects to move to the valley and make this his summer home.

O. Bennett gave a complimentary dinner to the sisters and students of the Academy of Arts of this city, putting on for their entertainment a comic solo and the Passion play in the Alluvial, with special music and an explanatory lecture. The students of the academy, accompanied by the visiting sisters, attended in a body.

The Mesilla valley is experiencing one of the earliest spring seasons which it has had in many years. Gardens are planted in the open, are in full bloom in the vicinity of Las Cruces, and unless there is a freezing spell later on the first cut of wheat will be made about the first of May on a number of the ranches.

The Broadway Jewelry company is preparing to move its stock of goods from the First National bank building into the room which has just been remodeled for the business in the Riley building.
